BUILDING TRADES

Connecting with Construction Leaders

Thursday, 4/14/22
11:15 AM - 1:15 PM
Lombardo's

Build Right. Build On.

For students to connect with building pros who are LOOKING TO FIND AND DEVELOP NEW TALENT...not just for students who are already in trade programs but for those who are interested in exploring how to enter into the creative, growing and lucrative building industry.

With several featured presenters, this is a trade show style event where the industry's top manufacturers will be showing the latest & greatest products on the market and hosting how-to and best practice clinics.

Here's the Expo Promo Video!

Business coach and keynote speaker, Shawn Van Dyke will meet with students to talk about the business, give advice and answer questions.

Build homes, skyscrapers, lead a team, be an entrepreneur, travel with skills that can take you anywhere!

Thank you CCL for inviting us!

Shawn Van Dyke is an expert in the construction business. In addition to two engineering degrees, Dyke has run a series of successful businesses, including a speciality construction company of which he became the COO in 2013. From his experience and success, Dyke has become an author, professional speaker, and business coach, all focused on helping contractors around the world build the systems they need for purposeful, profitable growth.
